

Michael Ferrera

Position: Vice President

Industry: Entrepreneurship

Graduating Class: 2004

Michael Ferrera is a Los Angeles based tastemaker and the Founder of Michael Ferrera Custom Clothing, a bespoke clothier for business professionals, athletes & entertainers. As an educator and image consultant Michael Ferrera is the author of the book series titled The Perfect Gentleman's Pocket Guide, on Amazon. Mr. Ferrera has his own unique style where he is consistent in sophisticated yet colorful for his personal image. Occasionally he alters his looks to encourage clients that it is okay to move out of their comfort zone for style.

Michael Ferrera is a 12-year strong Investment Advisor turned fashion who still admires the drive of global entrepreneurs. As a full service investment advisor, Mr. Ferrera constantly invests in markets, startups and real estate for continued wealth diversification personally and for client needs.

In addition to business, Michael enjoys sports, technology and is committed to philanthropic engagements. Michael Ferrera is the Immediate Past President of the Los Angeles Urban League Young Professionals, and is a board member of both the Los Angeles Urban League and Orange County based nonprofit Working Wardrobes.