

Victorino Moreria

Position: Immediate Past President

Industry: Higher Education

Graduating Class: 2007

Victorino received his BA in Sociology in the winter of 2007. During his time as an undergrad at UCR, he was involved in several organizations. But the organization that he is most proud to have been part of is the Nigerian Student Association (NSA) to which he was also one of the founders. His experiences at UCR helped guide him to a career in higher education as an academic advisor. He currently works as an academic advisor at UCR and is glad to be carrying on UCR's legacy of producing graduates that impact their surrounding community.
